There will speedily be Publish'd,

A LETTER to a Noble LORD relating to Dr. Sacheverell, by a Lover of the Church, and present Happy Constitution.

A LETTER TO THE REVEREND Dr. Henry Sacheverell.

By Isaac Bickerstaff, Esq;

Sheer-Lane, January the 19*th*, 1709-10.

Reverend SIR,

BEING very intent upon some Astrological Speculations, I had not time to satisfy you Yesterday about the subject

Matter of your Petition. But as my Native Affection to Men of Parts and well-plac'd Zeal would not ſuffer me to Forget you; ſo neither can I in Juſtice refuſe to iſſue out the following ORDER in your Favour; which I give you leave to PUBLISH in my Name as ſoon as you ſhall think Convenient: And am, (with all due Reſpect to your Cloth and Character, as well as Perſonal Abilities,)

Reverend Sir,

Your moſt Humble Servant,

Isaac Bickerſtaff.

BY

Isaac Bickerstaff, Esq;

Censor General

OF

GREAT-BRITAIN.

WHEREAS, by the Petition of Dr. Henry Sacheverell, it has been represented to Me, that he has been often very Scurrilously Abus'd by Persons as well of his own Cloth as Others, whom by their Habits he cannot distinguish from his Friends; and that it is his earnest Desire, that I would some way or other Redress his said great Grievance; That he may know his Enemies at first Sight.

I being very well satisfied of the Reasonableness of the said Request; do hereby strictly Charge and Command, all the Clergy who are not of the said Dr's. Opinion, to wear a Thistle in their Hats instead of a Rose.

I do also strictly enjoin all Lay-Men, who are angry at the Doctor, not to Cock their Hats except only behind, but to appear before in all Respects like the Old Round-Heads.

Given at Our Court of Judicature this 19th Day of January, 1709-10.

Isaac Bickerstaff Esq;

Charles Lilly Secretary.

AN ADVERTISEMENT TO Ben. Hoadly.

I Have now under my consideration, the insolent Behaviour and insipid Writings of Ben. Hoadly, whom by these Presents I admonish to appear before Me, at my own Apartment on the 29th of this Instant January, to shew Cause why he should not be pronounc'd a Dead-Man, and be instantly delivered to the Company of Upholders, in Order to his Interment.

N. B. He is also requir'd to bring with Him the Copy of the Sermon he designs for the 30th of January next ensuing, and not to Preach the same without my special License and Approbation.
